WORK EXPERIENCE

Credit Suisse

New York, NY

Leveraged Finance Origination and Restructuring (LFO&R) Summer Analyst

06/2010 – 08/2010

- $1.2Bn Project Finance transaction for Terra-Gen Power, LLC, to fund 4 wind power projects known as Alta Wind II-IV; Terra-Gen will become nation's largest wind farm after the construction of the wind turbines
 - Mitigated investor concerns by providing in-depth research that illustrate Californian state provisions that subsidize alternative energy construction, and by analyzing third-party engineering audit reports that detail wind turbine supplier credibility and warranties; led to successful sales team pitch that upsized financing to include the additional financing for Alta Wind IV
 - Overcame obstacle of not having a Moody's rating because 1) supplier Vestas Wind Turbine is unknown to Moody's, and 2) wind power energy is a relatively new field for Moody's; crafted a 25-year payout schedule of the turbine construction and maintenance to ensure investor confidence in profitability of Alta Wind II-IV
- International telecommunications client looking to obtain market base in Central America through M&A
 - Worked directly with Managing Director to produce a sophisticated financial modeling that included sensitivity analysis of owner's equity dilution for incremental amounts of debt added on to finance the acquisition

BCMS Corporate

New York, NY

M&A Advisory Analyst

10/2009 – 05/2010

- Prepared 15+ pro-forma P&L statements through financial statement analysis and edited pro-forma statements from client meeting inputs to adjust for nonrecurring and other nonrelated income/expenses to reflect a better picture of the business's core profit
- Crafted 10+ client-facing Preliminary Generation Team (PGT) Reports, an external document that offers Clients updates of the sell-side prospective generation status and provides status quo market analysis of Client's business
- Assessed 500+ potential cost and/or revenue synergies between Prospect Buyers' and Client's businesses through industry research to appropriately categorize Prospect Buyers as tangential, horizontal, and/or vertical fits relative to Client's business

Cathay Bank

Kent, WA

Commercial Loan Summer Analyst

06/2008 – 08/2008
